Professional Live Streaming Services

Live streaming is often the most effective way of reaching and interacting with YOUR audience.

Foulkes Productions is ready to live stream anything to YOUR Facebook page (or YouTube), including conferences, panel discussions, product launches, conventions, fashion shows, sports events, musical performances, debates, company training and corporate meetings.

Broadcasting in real-time will amplify the impact of your event.

Foulkes Productions has the professional experience, with the proper equipment to live-stream your event with high-quality video and audio.

If your Do-It-Yourself “Go Live Now” approach with a smartphone or laptop isn’t giving you the quality broadcast that you need, then reach out your audience with confidence and professionalism! Foulkes Productions is here to help, so that your online audience will SEE and HEAR your event clearly. Call Darin for a no-obligation quote (902) 368-4336.
